Call Room

- 20' minutes beforehand for running, walking and relay races;
- 30' for the jumps (long/triple) and throws;
- 40' for the high jump;
- 50' for the pole vault

The time of actual entry onto the pitch will be displayed near the entrance to the call room and in the warm-up area. No loudspeaker announcements will be made.

Entering and leaving the competition area: The entire competition area will be supervised by trained personnel. Athletes enter the competition area exclusively via the call room and follow the delegated referee. They leave the competition area only when accompanied by the judges, always in single file, through the mixed zone at the end of the competition.

Participation in the competitions: Each representing team may enter one athlete per competition, except for the 4x100 relay where 4 athletes may start.

Each athlete may participate in two individual races or one individual race and the relay 4x100.

The relay teams can consist of athletes who participate in other races of the technical programme or athletes who only participate in relays.

Athletes who are only entered in relays can take part in the 100 m additional race.

Finalists in the competitions: In the triple jump, long jump and the four throwing events, the top eight finishers qualify for the final after the first three attempts.

Composition of the series in the heats: The series of the 100m, 200m, 400m, 110h, 100h, 400h and 800m heats will be compiled taking into account the entry times achieved in 2024 and 2025. The athletes with the best times will run in the final series.

The draw for the lanes will be made in a predetermined order regardless of the athlete's registration time.

Throwing implement (javelin 700g): Athletes may use both the IAAF Javelin Throw 2024 and the IAAF Javelin Throw 2025.

Jump heights:

High jump men: 1.60-1.65-1.70-1.75-1.78-1.81-1.84-1.87-1.90-1.92 + 2

Complaints: Complaints concerning an athlete's participation in a competition must be submitted to the Technical Delegate before the start of the event or, in any case, before the individual competition.

Complaints concerning the conduct of a competition must be made verbally to the judge of the respective competition no later than 30 minutes after the announcement of the results.

Any appeal must be submitted in registered form to the Appeals Jury, accompanied by the prescribed fee of €100.00 (refundable if accepted). The appeal must be submitted to the TIC within 30 minutes of the referee/technical delegate's notification of the decision to be appealed.

Award ceremony: The first 3 finishers of each race will receive a prize.

The prize-giving ceremony will take place within 15' of the announcement of the results of each race. The athletes to be awarded prizes will be accompanied by the judges or staff in the prize-giving area, which will be available for the ceremony.

Team classification: The winner of each of the 18 races of the technical programme will receive 16 team points, the runner-up 15 points, which will be reduced by one point up to the 16th.

Non-placed athletes will not receive any points.

Any other eligible athletes will not receive any team points.

All points achieved in the 36 different competitions must be added together for the team classification.

In the event of a tie, the first criterion is the table score (Fidal table) among the 36 evaluations; in the event of a further tie, the sum of the best female + male technical result (Fidal table) counts
